

CMIT Elementary Students Wins at local STEM Fair including: FIRST PLACE - Plant Science "Best Overall" ESE Federal Credit Union STEM Award!

FOR IMMEDIATE

RELEASE (not the article):

On Saturday, May 21, 2016, several prizes were awarded to CMIT Elementary students for their impressive showing at the weekend's 26th Annual Kids For Science (KFS) STEM Fair event held at Elenor Roosevelt High School in Greenbelt, MD.

PGCPS, CMIT, and CLF are consistently promoting STEM education across Prince George's County and this weekend's fair is one of many exciting opportunities available to Prince George County residents!

Please join CLF by giving special recognition to these bright CMIT Elementary Tech-Savvy-Tigers & their dedicated teachers and parents:

GOLD! - Zach Ward (3rd Grade) won 1st place in Plant Science and the best overall ESE Federal Credit Union STEM Award.

SILVER! – Dailyn Wray (4th Grade) won second place in Environmental science.

SILVER! - Brandon Milline (3rd Grade) won second place in Mathematics.

BRONZE! – Sydney Wyn, (5th Grade) won third place in Computer Science and received a special award.

BRONZE! - Alexander Akintume (3rd Grade) won 3rd place in Engineering.

On behalf of all of us at CLF, we'd like to congratulate the coaches, parents, teachers, and administration at CMIT Elementary for your every-day efforts that culminate into results and successes like these STEM awards!

Warmest regards,
Mark J. Sutherland
